Dundee Rep Ensemble and Royal Lyceum Theatre, Edinburgh present
Time and the Conways
By J. B. Priestley

At Royal Lyceum Theatre, Edinburgh, Friday 15 February – Saturday 9 March, then Dundee Rep Theatre, Wednesday 13 – Saturday 30 March

Dundee Rep Ensemble opens their season with the rarely performed period drama Time and the Conways by J.B. Priestley. Directed by Artistic Director Jemima Levick, this is the Rep’s second co-production with the Royal Lyceum Theatre, Edinburgh.

Set in 1919 the Conway family look set for a bright and prosperous future but in a twist of time and with a brief glimpse into their future, we discover that life isn’t quite as they had once dreamt. Aspirations have turned sour, relationships have twisted and the truth of their destiny plays out.

In this extraordinary manipulation of time, Priestley’s play comes to a climax as he subverts the narrative, taking the audience back to the moment this successful family began to sow the seeds of their downfall.

Written in 1937 alongside the better known ‘An Inspector Calls’, Time and the Conways is part of Priestley’s series of ‘Time Plays’ that examine the different concepts and theories of time, and is widely regarded as the best in the series.

Director Jemima Levick assembles a stellar ten strong cast alongside designer Ti Green, with lighting by Mark Doubleday and music by Philip Pinsky.

Tickets are on sale at both venues, contact Royal Lyceum box office on 0131 248 4848 or www.lyceum.org.uk/conways and Dundee Rep box office on 01382 223530 or www.dundeerep.co.uk
